A COLLABORATION

HENRICO COUNTY PUBLIC LIBRARY + QUINN EVANS

Fairfield Parent+Child Carrel

Henrico Library Director, Barbara Weedman, and her staff saw a need: a place where a parent or caregiver can work on the computer and have Internet access while their baby or toddler can PLAY close by. Quinn Evans contacted TMC to see if we could collaborate on a solution.

Collaborators at TMC, Quinn Evans and Henrico exchanged sketches and shared notes. The workstation, which features a desk with privacy panels and an attached play area, evolved through these discussions and reviews until designers at TMC and Quinn Evans felt confident it would meet the library's needs.

We developed was a connected interactive space for the child that would be inviting, safe and educational for a baby or toddler nurturing curiosity and exploration. While the workstation provides a comfortable work space for parent or caregiver.

Recognizing an Unmet Need In Libraries

A community solution for a very human need.

Single-Faced Parent+Child Carrel

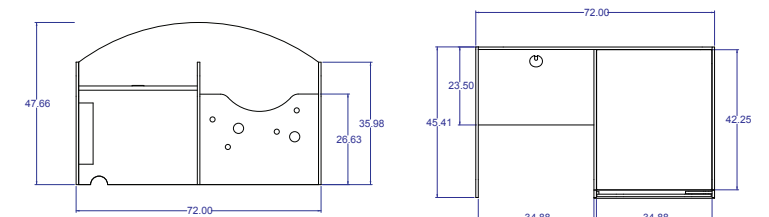

Double-Faced Parent+Child Carrel

Family Workstation

The Family Workstation offers a value-priced version of the Fairfield Parent+Child Carrel. We listened to our customers who suggested we also offer a lower-height, more open, and less expensive model. The Family Workstation offers that solution. Available in single or double-faced units. Each workstation includes a wire chase, PVC-free vinyl mat, mirror and one Learning Panel. ImPrinted imagery on the exterior side panels is optional. Modifications may include a gate with latch that opens and closes and an additional Learning Panel on the play interior. The Family Workstation maintains all of the safety and durability standards as our Fairfield Parent+Child Carrel but at a lower price point.
